

AIDA State Supervision Working Party

Rio de Janeiro – 13 October 2018

1 Introduction

Dr Gunne Bähr, outgoing Chairman of the State Supervision Working Party, opened the session by welcoming participants.

Dr Bähr introduced Mr Yannis Samothrakis as the newly appointed Chairman of the State Supervision Working Party by decision of the Presidential Council.

Yannis Samothrakis and participants warmly thanked Gunne Bähr for all the great work accomplished by the Working Party under his Chairmanship.

Gunne Bähr introduced the speakers.

2 Presentations

Presentations were delivered as follows:

- Yves Hayaux-du-Tilly, Mexico: "New criteria and regulatory risks to foreign reinsurers taking reinsurance risk from Mexican cedents"
- Ray Giblett, Sydney: "The non-admitted (re-)insurance business from the Australian perspective"
- Giuliana Liasch, São Paulo: "Regulatory challenges for insurance business in Brazil"
- Shivaun Moreno and Daniel Curi , Hannover: "Regulatory rules in Brazil for Reinsurance"
- Daniel Alejandro Russo, Buenos Aires: "Argentina reinsurance market: access issues"

In order to allow for discussion time, Gunne Bähr and Yannis Samothrakis did not deliver their presentations. Their slides were however provided to participants. The topics of these presentations were as follows:

- Yannis Samothrakis, Paris: "Conducting (re-)insurance business cross border within the European Economic Area (EEA)"
- Speaker: Gunne W. Bähr, Cologne: "Compliance risks arising from cross border (re-)insurance business in Europe and ROW "

3 Discussion

Participants and speakers had exchanges on the various topics discussed during the session.

4 Next Session

It was agreed that the Working Party on State Supervision would meet in Marrakech in April 2019.

Annex: Presentations