

JUAN MANUEL DIAZ-GRANADOS

Lawyer graduated from Rosary University, specialist in Private and Civil Law from the University of Paris (Paris II).

Has been link to the Insurance sector since 1983, when he entered to the Insurers' National Federation of Colombia - FASECOLDA, where worked as Juridical Vice-president until 1995.

Served as president of Colmena Insurance Company and executive Vice-president of Liberty Insurance Company.

Was Consultant of the Inter-American Development Bank, IDB for the reforms of the Insurance and Social Security systems in some countries of Central America.

Has been professor of Rosary University, Javeriana University and Externado University for several years.

Has written the books "THE INSURANCES IN THE NEW REGIME OF ADMINISTRATIVE CONTRACTING" (1996) and "LIABILITY INSURANCE" (first edition 2006 and second edition 2012), as well as multiple articles on subjects of Insurance, Social Security and Civil Liability.

He was Executive President of the Colombian Association of Health Insurance Companies, ACEMI.

Currently works at his own firm DIAZ-GRANADOS & CONSULTING LAWYERS SAS.

Serves as President of the Colombian Association of Insurance Law, ACOLDESE.