

Capitolina Tourbina

Director of the Representative Office in Russia of General Reinsurance AG, Berkshire Hathaway Company, professor of MGIMO university in Moscow .

Graduated with honors in 1982 Moscow financial Institute and in 1997 Faculty of Law in S.Petersburg University. In 2001 got Doctor Degree for the thesis “Modern trends of the global insurance market development.

Since March 1997 года works as Director of the Representative Office in Russia of General Reinsurance AG. Before was in the position of the Deputy Head of the Federal insurance supervisory Service in Russia. In this capacity in 1992-1997 participated in the development of new insurance regulation in Russia, was a member of the negotiating committees for the international agreements (with EC, WTO and others), represented Russian Insurance Supervisory authority in IAIC and other international organizations (as AIDA, Geneva papers etc). Worked as an Expectr for the World bank programs in CIS countries.

Since 1994 to 2003 was a Chairperson of the Russian National AIDA Chapter, initiated its establishment with the great support from Guy Levie, John Butler. Since reorganization of AIDA Russian Chapter in 2017 – Chairperson of AIDA Russian Chapter in Insurance and pension Committee in Association of European Business in Russia.

Since 1994 is a professor in Moscow state university of the international relationship , main courses Insurance market economy, Risk management concepts in insurance, Securitization of insurance rosks, Insurance Law, Insurance Law of EC, International insurance market. More than 50 PHD students have been prepared for the professional degree under Prof.C.Tourbina leadership.

Capitolina Tourbina is the author of more than 70 publications in insurance and insurance law, including study books for the University, main out of them are: Insurance Mutuals in the modern economy, Theory and practice of insurance (practical guide for master courses), Trends of the global insurance market development and the others.

Member of the Insurance Expect council in the Central Bank.