

AGENDA

09.15 – 11.45, Thursday 13 September

Grange Tower Bridge Hotel, 45 Prescott Street, London E1 8GP

The program

AIDA Consumer Protection & Dispute Resolution Working Party will discuss the "Precautionary Measures" defined as "a clause in the insurance contract whether or not described as a condition precedent to the liability of the insurer, requiring the policyholder or the insured before the insured event occurs, to perform or not to perform certain acts" (PEICL Article 4:101)

Opening speech:

Samim Ünán (Chairman of the Consumer Protection & Dispute Resolution Working Party)

Speakers:

John Habbergham (Director/Solicitor Myton Law, Hull UK)

Prof. Anne Pelissier (AIDA France, Université de Montpellier)

Greg Pynt (Pynt & Partners, Perth Australia)

David Hirzel (SCOR Switzerland)

Kyriaki Noussia/Stella Sakellaridou (AIDA Greece)

Hüseyin Arslan (ERGO Turkey)

Discussion

Closing remarks