

May 2010

biography

Hans Londonck Sluijk

T + 31 (0)20-605 6394

F + 31 (0)20-605 6712

h.londonck@houthoff.com

Position

Partner, Insurance and Reinsurance

Background

Hans Londonck Sluijk (1968) graduated from the University of Amsterdam in 1992 with a degree in Dutch Law. He also has a degree in political, social and cultural studies from the same university. In 1996 and 1997, he completed two postgraduate Grotius programmes. He joined Houthoff Buruma in 1992 and has been a partner since 2001.

Expertise

Hans Londonck Sluijk is the head of Houthoff Buruma's corporate and commercial litigation practice. He specializes in corporate litigation, insurance law, the liability of directors and officers, professional liability and insolvency litigation. He is an expert in international insurance and reinsurance issues.

Hans Londonck Sluijk has been active in the insurance industry for over 15 years. Heading the firm's Insurance Industry Group, he specializes in international insurance and reinsurance issues with a particular focus on D&O, E&O and Financial Lines in general. In these areas Hans represents international insurance companies and their insured in complex multi-party litigation.

Hans is cited in Chambers Europe, Legal 500 and Who's Who legal reference guides as a leader in the field of insurance and reinsurance in the Netherlands. In Chambers 2009 Hans Londonck Sluijk is recognized as "the major authority in the Netherlands for high-value D&O claims."

Other activities

Hans Londonck Sluijk frequently lectures on issues relating to corporate litigation, insurance and reinsurance. He also publishes articles in these areas. He is the editor of several legal periodicals and is secretary to the Disciplinary Tribunal of the Actuarieel Genootschap (Dutch Actuarial Association).

Hans Londonck Sluijk is a member of the IBA Insurance Committee and sits on the board of the Dutch chapter of AIDA, the Nederlandse Vereniging van Verzekeringswetenschap.